STORYTIMES

Weekly Baby Time, Toddler Time, and Family Storytimes begin June 6.

Baby Time

Tuesdays at 1:30pm
Wednesdays at 11am
Thursdays at 6pm
Storytime Room

Bring your pre-walker to the Library for stories, songs, and baby sign language. Join with other caregivers and older siblings for 20 minutes of fun and learning. Feel free to bring a stuffed animal or doll for the older sibling to learn along with you. Babies and caregivers are welcome to stay and play after the event!

Toddler Storytime

Mondays and Wednesdays
10:30am, Storytime Room

Families are invited for a storytime filled with music, stories, and fun!

Family Storytime

Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays*
10:30am, Storytime Room

Children of all ages and their grown-ups are invited to enjoy stories, songs, and movement activities while building early literacy skills.

* Our Family Storytime on Saturday, June 18, will be a Juneteenth Storytime, and Saturday, June 25, will be a Drag Storytime. No Family Storytimes during Terrific Tuesdays, June 14 & 21.

German Storytime

Sunday, June 5
4pm, Storytime Room

German Storytime is a chance for children and families to immerse themselves in stories, songs and all things fun about German culture. Come learn and engage in this bilingual storytime experience.

Juneteenth Storytime

TECH TUESDAYS

Tuesdays starting June 14
1pm, Storytime Room

Kids going into grades 1-5 can come explore with different tech devices and theories.

Explore what technology does and how it has changed from the past to the present. Consider how inventors use the engineer design process and look at every day technology uses at home and in the community. Create models to better understand how technology is currently used and consider what technology might look like in the future.

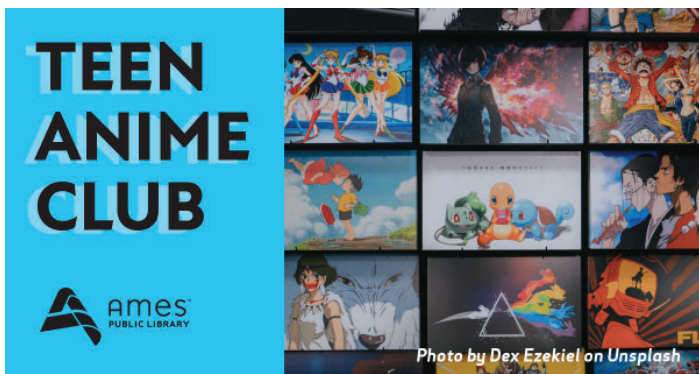

Presented in partnership with Iowa State University Story County Extension.

Thursdays, 3:30-6pm, Teen Space

Need a brain break? Teens are invited to hang out, stay cool, and play videogames on our big screen!

Friday, June 17, 4pm, Teen Space

Join our monthly meetup to watch some anime, talk about your favorite manga, or create your own art and manga. This free event is open to 6th-12th graders. Anime watched is considered to be rated G to PG-13.

TAG TEEN ADVISORY GROUP

Presented in partnership with Ames Public Library and the City of Ames.

Annual Lecture Series

Tuesday, June 8
7pm, in the Auditorium or via Zoom

Topic: The 1920s Building Boom in Downtown Ames

Presenter: Sharon Wirth, Museum Board Member

The Pantorium, Carr Hardware and Sheldon Munn's addition - Oh, my! How and when did the look of Ames' downtown buildings transition from a Victorian era appearance to a more modern look? What thriving businesses dotted the commercial district's landscape? What part did Iowa State College (now Iowa State University) play?

Wirth will discuss the many changes occurring during the 1920s time period, the architectural transformation and the community leaders who made it happen.

Participate in person or online. To participate via Zoom, register for this event at www.ameshistory.org.

Provided in partnership with Ames Public Library and Ames History Museum.

Annual Lecture Series

Tuesday, June 29
7pm, in the Auditorium or via Zoom

Topic: Ames Does Its Homework: Public Schools Meet the Next Century

Presenter: Douglas Biggs, Professor of History, University of Nebraska-Kearney

From about 1890 to 1900, the Ames public school district was growing - especially after 1893 when west Ames was annexed into the city limits. How were students on the west side of Ioway Creek accommodated in facilities and how did students travel to meet their daily classes?

Biggs will explore these questions about daily school life as the Ames Community School District marks its Sesquicentennial.

Participate in person or online. To participate via Zoom, register for this event at www.ameshistory.org.

Provided in partnership with Ames Public Library and Ames History Museum.

Thursdays, May 5-June 9
1-4pm on the second floor

Staff from ACCESS will be available in the Library to provide services that enhance safety and empower survivors of domestic abuse or sexual assault. If you are dealing with sexual harassment, domestic abuse (emotional or physical), or sexual abuse, we will hold a confidential space where you can get emotional support and tips for safety planning. We are also available to help with reporting to law enforcement, Civil No-Contact Orders, and more.

Ames Public Library is partnering with The Bridge Home to provide easy access to critical services. Staff from The Bridge Home will be available in the Library to assist individuals and families on the verge of—or experiencing—homelessness with apartment searching, appointment scheduling, job applications, and more.

Staff members will also be available to connect community members who are experiencing homelessness with vital services.

You can find The Bridge Home at Ames Public Library:

Tuesdays
11am-2pm on the first floor

Thursdays
4-7pm on the second floor

Fridays
11am-2pm on the second floor

English
Mondays, 12:30-1:30pm, Danfoss Room

Gather for casual conversations in English. The focus of this group is to help English Language Learners gain confidence and fluency in a comfortable and fun setting. Library staff will pair native and non-native speakers and provide themes, questions, and topics for conversation.

Spanish
Tuesdays, 7-8:30pm, Board Room or Zoom

Russian
Saturdays, 3-4pm, Board Room or Zoom

French
Saturdays, 4-5:30pm, Board Room or Zoom

Gather (in person or online) for casual conversations in different languages. Chat in your native language or get comfortable speaking in another language.

Make sure your car is as ready as you are! Your library card lets you use the Chilton Library online for free, wherever you are. (You can also check out repair manuals at the Library!)

Want to jump start your baby's development? See amazing changes happen when you join Ames Public Library's Small Talk program with your 0-30 month-old.

Through online classes and videos, families will learn fun tips and tricks to make playtime, and talking time, more rewarding for everyone.

In addition, families will receive personalized weekly progress reports from a "talk pedometer"—a device used to measure the amount of talking happening between families and their child. Participants will also earn free books to read together and keep!

Sound interesting? Register for a 10-week virtual Small Talk session starting Thursday, July 7, at 6:30pm. Each week, families will receive a link to an online video to watch prior to class, an opportunity to discuss what they have learned via Zoom, and a personalized language report based on their use of the device.

If you'd like to register or have any questions, please e-mail youthstaff@amespubliclibrary.org or call (515) 239-5646 ext. 3.
