Monday-Thursday: 9am-9pm
Friday & Saturday: 9am - 6pm
Sunday: 1pm - 5pm

50 Years of Title IX

Title IX was signed into law June 23, 1972, impacting girls and women in sports across the United States. Join us in honoring and celebrating these impacts on our community.

Title IX in Ames Exhibit

March 6-31, Library Entryway

While girls' sports have always been a part of the Ames High School experience, competitive girls' sports were strengthened and expanded through the passage of Title IX. Learn about the history of girls' sports at Ames High School through this photo exhibit.

Presented in partnership with Ames Public Library and Ames History Museum.

Watch for a Title IX panel discussion featuring former ISU athletes as well as current and past administrators Saturday, April 15, at 2pm at Ames Public Library.

Thursdays (except March 30 & April 6)
4-6pm, Teen Space

Need a brain break? Teens are invited to hang out and play videogames in the Teen Space!

It's March Madness, book-style! We're pitting the most popular new books from 2022 in our children's section against each other in a literary showdown. Each week, vote for your favorite from each face-off by visiting www.AmesPublicLibrary.org/MarchMadness or stop by the Youth Services Desk to cast your vote.

Saturday, March 4, 2pm, Auditorium

All ages are welcome to attend Des Moines Metro Opera's performance of Sid the Serpent Who Wanted to Sing, the story of a serpent in the circus who longs for more than just slithering in and out of his basket—he wants to sing! His efforts to find a singing style suitable to a snake are hilarious.

Presented in partnership with Ames Public Library and the Ames Chapter of the Des Moines Metro Opera Guild. Supported in part through local option tax funds provided by the City of Ames through the Commission on the Arts.

Sunday, March 5, 3-4pm, Board Room

Proud Place Ames is a safe space for LGBTQIA+ teens to share common experiences, hang out, craft, and learn together. For more information, e-mail our teen librarian, Ethan, at eatwell@amespubliclibrary.org. No registration is required.

Fresh Conversations is a free nutrition education program designed to support healthy aging and independence, especially for Iowans aged 60 and older. Join us and discuss current nutrition and health topics, taste low-cost healthy recipes, and discover new ways to stay active and independent.

Presented in partnership with Ames Public Library and Aging Resources of Central Iowa. Funded by USDA's Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP).

Monday, March 6
7pm, Auditorium or via Zoom

Are you on social media? Do you watch the news? Come join graduate students from the Department of Psychology at Iowa State for an informative panel discussion on how to improve your media literacy skills!

Discussion will feature real-world examples and introduce the science behind the media we all spend time with.

Topics include recognizing reputable sources, spotting hidden ads, understanding health news, the positive benefits of media, and the effects of video games.

Presentations from students will be followed by a Q&A.

1st and 3rd Tuesday of Each Month
4pm, Storytime Room

Come play chess! Whether you are just a beginner or already an expert, all kids in grades 4-6 are welcome to come have fun after school on the first and third Tuesdays of each month.

Drop in and learn how to play or come and face off against a new opponent.

Supported by the Ames Public Library Friends Foundation.

Tuesday, March 7
6:30pm, Rotary Room

Come meet local author, illustrator, and photographer Kris Abel-Helwig as she talks about her new young adult release and last book in her Hero Series trilogy: My Wings Aren't Ready To Fly.

She has also written, illustrated, and independently published children's books and stand-alone young adult novels, including the award-winning I Wish My Words Tasted Better.

Presented in partnership with Ames Public Library and Ames Writers Collective.

A COMMUNITY CONVERSATION ABOUT MENTAL HEALTH

Tuesday, March 7
6:30-8:30pm, Library Auditorium

Topic: Substance Use Disorders

In a partnership with local substance use treatment organizations, Iowa State University Student Wellness, and the Ames Community School District, the City of Ames is hosting a “Community Conversation about Substance Use Disorders” to explore the connections between substance use and its impact on mental health.

Personal stories will be shared as well as presentations from representatives from Community and Family Resources, YSS, Iowa State University Student Wellness, Ames Community Schools, and Ames Police Department. A question-and-answer session will follow.

Wednesday, March 8, 5-6pm, Board Room

Genealogy Plus

Wednesday, March 15
10am-12pm, Auditorium or via Zoom

Topic — Gems & Junk: A Beginner's Guide to Online Research

Speaker — Alice Hoyt Veen, CG

Today's family historians have an amazing selection of online sources and resources for genealogical research.

What are the best options and how do you differentiate between true "gems" and outright junk? This presentation explores the very best and the very worst of online genealogy.

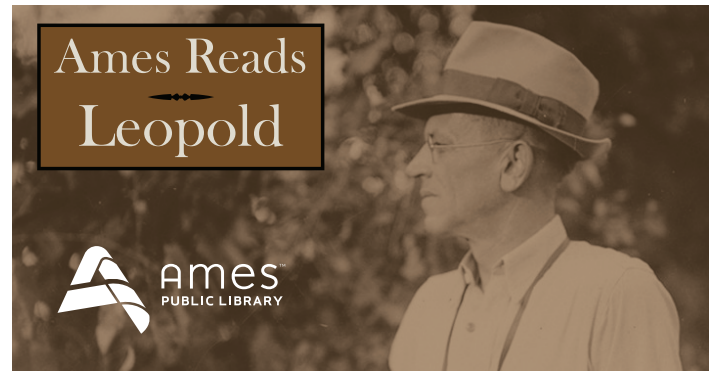

Presented in partnership with Ames Public Library and the Story County Genealogical Society.

Friday, March 17
4-6pm, Teen Space

Join our monthly meetup to watch some anime, talk about your favorite manga, or create your own art and manga.

Open to 6th-12th graders. Anime watched is considered to be rated G to PG-13.

Sunday, March 19
1:30-4pm, Auditorium

Join your friends and neighbors at this year's "Ames Reads Leopold" event and hear the thought-provoking words of Iowa's own Aldo Leopold, widely acknowledged as the father of wildlife conservation and a strong advocate for a "Land Ethic" in America. Although Leopold's A Sand County Almanac was first published in 1949, his words continue to be as poignant today as then.

Neil Hamilton, Former Director of the Drake Agricultural Law Center and Professor Emeritus of Law, will be a featured speaker. Additional speakers/readers will include local high school and Iowa State University students as well as community members.

Presented in partnership with Ames Public Library, Creative Writing & Environment at ISU, ISU Bioethics Program, Leopold Center for Sustainable Agriculture, Office of Sustainability/Live Green! Initiative, Outdoor Alliance of Story County, Story County Conservation, and The Sustainable Agriculture Student Association (SASA) ISU.

Learn with the League of Women Voters about U.S. Army and Joint Operations. Richard Smith, MBA, MPH retired Lieutenant Colonel, will talk about the current structure of the Army, how it operates now in a Joint environment, and his experiences in Afghanistan.

Presented in partnership with Ames Public Library and the League of Women Voters of Ames & Story County.

Tuesday, March 21
7pm, Auditorium or via Zoom

Topic — Isolating the Enemy: Diplomatic Strategy in China and the United States, 1953-1956

Speaker — Tao Wang

In the mid-1950s China and the United States tried to isolate each other internationally. As this talk by Tao Wang shows, Washington often overestimated Beijing's aggressiveness while Chinese leaders convinced U.S. allies and neutral countries to pressure Washington to make concessions on areas of mutual concern.

Presented in partnership with Ames Public Library, Ames History Museum, and Iowa State University Department of History.

Saturday, March 25
11:15am-12:15pm, Storytime Room

Join this inclusive and welcoming community of families that are growing. Whether you are pregnant, adopting, just delivered or have young children at home, join us as we support each other and grow together. Facilitated by Certified Nurse Midwife Megan Sloat, these monthly meetups will connect families to each other and to resources and answers about birth and parenthood.

Presented in partnership with Ames Public Library and Awelia Childbirth.

ANNUAL LECTURE SERIES:

Exploring the Trice Connection

Wednesday, March 29
7pm, Auditorium or via Zoom

Topic—Exploring the Trice Connection: Jack's African-American ISC Friends, Family, and Classmates

Speaker—Gloria Betcher, Historical Researcher; Teaching Prof. of English, Iowa State University

October 1923 marks the centennial of Jack Trice's tragic death, and Iowa State University and the Ames community will celebrate his accomplishments and the inspiration he continues to provide. Equally inspiring and noteworthy are Jack's African American friends, family, and classmates.

This lecture will explore the lives of Jack's early 1920s social connections and examine what life was like for him, his Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity brothers, his wife, and his Black classmates. Where did they live and how did they fund their educations? Among this group were future engineers, teachers and professors, a future aviator, two future university Directors of Agriculture, three future university presidents, and a future Congressional Medal of Freedom recipient—all defying the odds by attending an historically White college in a majority White state.

Presented in partnership with Ames Public Library and Ames History Museum.

Are you over 70 and considering a charitable donation?

A new year has brought more than just resolutions. It's brought changes that may make it easier for you to make a difference at Ames Public Library.

- The age retirees must begin taking taxable withdrawals changed to 73 in 2023. However, the age for making a qualified charitable distribution remains at 70½.
- The annual limit on direct gifts to qualified charities from your IRA has also been changed. Historically, the amount you could give was capped at $100,000 per year. This figure will now be adjusted annually for inflation beginning in 2024.
- If you are 70½ or older, you can make a one-time election for a qualified charitable distribution of up to $50,000 (without being taxed) from your IRA to fund a life-income gift such as a charitable gift annuity, charitable remainder unitrust, or charitable remainder annuity trust.

You can support the outstanding programming at the Ames Public Library in a financially savvy way! Visit www.APLFF.org to learn more.
