Swift Youth Writers Workshop

June 26-30, 10am-12pm, Location varies
Register by e-mailing
info@ameswriterscollective.org

Teens in 8th - 12th grade are invited to escape into creative writing and connect with other teen writers. Regardless of your genre, for five days writers will come together in a safe space to read an inspirational piece of writing and write together to timed-writing prompts. Teens will explore daily writing sessions and at the end of each session, writers will be invited to read aloud to the group to receive positive feedback. A half-hour full-group lunch will wrap up each daily session.

These sessions are based upon the Amherst Writers & Artists Method, a methodology rooted in the belief that everyone is a writer. All feedback given is focused on the unique voice and strengths of the writer to encourage and model authenticity, peer support, and self-confidence.

Up to 12 spots are available, so register early by emailing info@ameswriterscollective.org.

Presented in partnership with Ames Public Library and Ames Writers Collective.

1st Sunday of Each Month 3-4pm, Board Room
