LIBRARY HOURS

Monday-Thursday: 9am-9pm
Friday & Saturday: 9am - 6pm
Sunday: 1pm - 5pm

120 Years of Ames Public Library Exhibit

October 1-31

Celebrate the Library's 120th anniversary! Learn about the Library's history and see photos—historical and modern—honoring the long history of Ames Public Library.

There will also be a presentation about Ames and other "Carnegie" libraries called "Andrew Carnegie's Riches in Iowa and Ames." See more information on page 10.

Kids Chess Club

1st and 3rd Tuesday of Each Month
(October 1 & 15)
4pm, Storytime Room

Come play chess! Whether you are just a beginner or already an expert, all kids in grades 1-5 are welcome to come have fun. Drop in and learn how to play or make new friends with other chess lovers.

Supported by the
Ames Public Library
Friends Foundation.

BEYOND THE LAWN: Lightning Talks for Biodiversity at Home

Thursday, October 3
6:30-8pm, Auditorium or via Zoom

Join local experts to learn how to turn your yard into a more sustainable, biodiverse environment.

Hear quick, 10-minute talks on different aspects of increasing your home's biodiversity, including learning about rebates available from the City of Ames.

Then, engage with speakers and other community members to learn more about how to move toward a pollinator-friendly environment at home.

Speakers will include: Liz Calhoun, storm water resource analyst with City of Ames Public Works and part of the team overseeing Smart Watersheds rebates; Katelyn Rinicker, Pollinator Conservation Specialist at Prairie Rivers of Iowa, who is working on the Ames Pollinator Plan; and Dr Matt O'Neal, Plant Pathology & Entomology Professor at Iowa State University (ISU) and part of the ISU Pollinator working group.

Presented in partnership with Ames Public Library and Seeds of Sustainability.

Ames Public Library

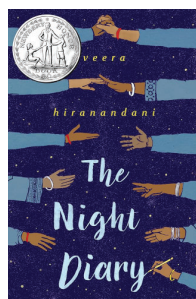

Homeschool BOOK CLUB

1st Thursday of Each Month (October 3)
10am, Auditorium

Join Library staff for a monthly book discussion just for families that are homeschooling! Families are invited to read the book of the month (together or independently), then come to the Library for a discussion and related activities. This event and books are geared for school-age kids or middle-grade reading level, but all ages are welcome.

In October, we'll talk about The Night Diary by Veera Hiranandani. November's book will be Ancestor Approved: Intertribal Stories for Kids edited by Cynthia Leitch Smith.

Teen Videogames

Thursdays
4-6pm, Teen Space

Need a brain break?

Teens are invited to hang out and play videogames in the Teen Space! A virtual reality system will be available to try out too.

Monday, October 7
10:30am, Danfoss Room

Have you ever wondered what Artificial Intelligence (AI) is and how to use it?

This program for kids in grades 3-5, presented by a local high school student, will cover a brief explanation of AI and how it works, different types, the future of AI, and AI ethics.

The prevalence and importance of AI will continue to grow, so this will give kids a chance to learn, ask questions and share ideas.

After the presentation, students will be able to create and test a basic machine learning mode for themselves.

Voter Registration at the Library

Sunday, October 6
2-4pm, In Front of the Library

Representatives from the non-partisan League of Women Voters will be available to register voters at the Library.

Come prepared with an Iowa driver's license number, Iowa non-operator ID number, or Social Security number, if you have one.

Presented in partnership with Ames Public Library and League of Women Voters of Ames & Story County.

Monday, October 7
3:30pm, Teen Space

This workshop for 6th-12th graders focuses on increasing the ability of the youth to identify media messages and explore the impact of social media today.

Provided in partnership with Ames Public Library and YSS.

LEGO® Builders

2nd and 4th Tuesday of Each Month
(October 8 & 22)
4pm, Storytime Room

Children in grades 1-5 are invited to get creative and build with lots of LEGO®! We'll provide the bricks while the kids provide the imagination.

All LEGO® will remain at the Library, so bring a camera to capture a photo of your build. Please leave your own LEGO® at home so they don't get mixed up with the Library's.

Supported by the Ames Public Library Friends Foundation.

Computer Classes

Tuesdays, October 8-29
1:30-3:30pm, PEO Room

Learn the computer skills you're interested in! Computers are provided for all classes. You can guarantee your spot in a specific class by preregistering at the Library's Adult Services Desk or by calling (515) 239-5646 extension 4.

2-3:30pm, Storytime Room

Calling all school-aged Poké-Kids! Come learn how to play the Pokémon Trading Card Game and use a Library-supplied deck to battle other players.

You can bring your decks to talk and strategize with other players, but card trading will not be allowed.

Don't want to play? Come to watch others, enjoy Poké-art activities, chat with other kids, and build a supportive community of friends!

Kids ages 8 and under need to bring a caregiver along to help.

Caregivers: not sure what Pokémon is all about? This is a great opportunity to learn along with your kids!

Supported by Ames Public Library Friends Foundation.

Swift Youth Writers Group

2nd Sunday of Each Month
(October 13)
2-4pm, PEO Room

Teens in 6th - 12th grade are invited to escape into creative writing and connect with other teen writers.

Each month, attendees will be led through prompts and exercises to help develop and stretch their creative writing skills. Attendees will be given a chance to share their work and have a chance to support others.

No experience is necessary so all skill levels are encouraged to attend.

At the end of the school year, writers will be asked to submit 1 to 3 pieces (depending on genre) for inclusion in an anthology, and a celebratory reading will be held.

If you have any questions, please reach out to info@ameswriterscollective.org.

Presented in partnership with Ames Public Library and Ames Writers Collective.

In an election year, it seems like we are bombarded with political polls, but what do they actually mean?

In this non-partisan event, Professor Dave Peterson of Iowa State University's Department of Political Science will explain what political polls can actually tell us...and what they can't.

Presented in partnership with Ames Public Library and the Iowa State University Department of Political Science.

Tuesday, October 22
7pm, Auditorium

Ames Public Library is 120 years old! Join Shana Stuart of the Carnegie Libraries in Iowa Project to explore how the Ames Public Library secured a Carnegie grant to open our community's library in 1904.

Stuart will share the library's significance within the broader context of Carnegie library funding in Iowa, delve into the impact of this grant on the library's development, and look at its place among other Carnegie libraries in the state.

*Presented in partnership with Ames Public Library, Ames History Museum, and the Carnegie Libraries in Iowa Project.

Saturday, October 26
10am-12pm, PEO Room or via Zoom

Do you dream of writing "someday," but don't know where to start? Perhaps you already write, but you're stuck.

Join this free monthly writing workshop for adults, which provides a safe space for writers of all stages and genres to generate stories inspired by prompts running the gamut from phrases, poems, photography, guest authors and their prompts, or a piece of artwork. We will read our stories to one another and share only positive feedback.

These workshops are inspired by the Amherst Writers & Artists Method, which believes that everyone is a writer.

Presented by the Iowa Center for the Book and Ames Public Library in partnership with the Ames Writers Collective.

Sunday, October 27
2-4pm, Auditorium

Join The Swine Republic author, Chris Jones, for an author talk and book signing. The Swine Republic: Struggles With the Truth About Agriculture and Water Quality is Iowa's 2024 selection for adults for Great Reads from Great Places and an unexpected hit across Iowa.

Jones, a retired University of Iowa researcher, writes for a popular audience about how politics and economics have influenced changes in Iowa's water quality. His ability to simplify the complex relationship between agriculture and water makes his science writing uniquely accessible. Jones is passionate about getting the truth about the water we consume out to everyday Iowans, farmers, and scientists alike.

Books can be purchased online from Dog-Eared Books ahead of time and picked up at the event: <https://doglearedbooksames.com>. A small selection of books will also be available for purchase at the event.

Presented in partnership with the Iowa Center for the Book, Ames Public Library, and Dog-Eared Books.

Tuesday, October 29, 4pm, Storytime Room

Hey 1st-5th graders, come to the Library and build cool creations with unexpected materials.

Libraries and Lagers

by Cassie Benning Luze, Development Director
Ames Public Library Friends Foundation

Brains & Brews Trivia: Ames Public Library Fundraiser is right around the corner! The Ames Public Library Friends Foundation is hosting our first annual trivia night on Wednesday, October 16, from 7-9 p.m. Join us for an evening of brain-teasing trivia and fun to support the library.

Register to your team of any size up to six people for a flat fee of $60 per table at www.APLFF.org/events. Your registration fee will go directly to the Ames Public Friends Foundation to support materials and programming at Ames Public Library.

Alluvial's regular trivia hosts—Jordan Baumgardner, Brady Hubbard, and Cody Simons—are working hard on their regular rounds of challenging trivia with some extra bookish trivia mixed in.

You'll be able to enjoy a special brew, Library Lager, and win prizes for trivia rounds. A portion of the beer sales will benefit the library, thanks to the folks at Alluvial.

And don't forget our raffle! Tickets will be $5 per chance (includes tax,) or $20 for five and will be sold that evening—cash only please. We have some great prizes in store for you: a Kindle, theater ticket packages courtesy Stephens Auditorium, and $100 restaurant gift cards.

Contact me at (515) 230-5632 or development@aplff.org for more information.
